

Whole School Indigenous In-school visit Friday 27th October

Dear Parents / Carers,

As part of our whole school indigenous program we will be hosting a visit from Ron Murray. Ron Murray is a Wamba Wamba man (Swan Hill area) living at Yapeen, near Castlemaine, in central Victoria on Jaara country. He is a cultural educator, storyteller, musician, didgeridoo maker and wood sculptor.

The aim of this in-school visit is to support the fundamental role that education plays in building a society that is 'cohesive and culturally diverse, and that values Australia's Indigenous cultures'. It aims to develop students who are active and informed citizens with an appreciation of Australia's social, cultural, linguistic and religious diversity, and the ability to relate to and communicate across cultures at local, regional and global levels.

A 60 minute session includes information and stories about indigenous culture, language, food, music and performance.

Total cost of the in-school visit is $5.00

Please return the permission slip and payment to the class teacher by Monday 23rd October, 2017
